

APPENDIX 5

LOCAL PROGRAMMING BROADCAST BY CBMT-DT MONTREAL THAT PROVIDES REFLECTION OF ENGLISH OLMCs

APPENDIX 5 - CBMT MONTREAL - ENGLISH OLMC REFLECTION REPORT (Condition of licence 25(c))

BROADCAST YEAR 2021-2022

CBC ENGLISH TELEVISION

Program title	Description of local program that provides OLMC reflection	Program category	In-house/ Independent
Daybreak (Montreal)	Morning Show 6am - 7am	02A-Analysis	In-house
Maamuitaau	A husband and wife, Philip Matoush and Sharon Pepabano, created an Urban Bush Camp in Hudson, Qc. for the Cree patients who are in Montreal for medical reasons. They take patients to a traditional setting in the country for a cookout.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	A special on elders teaching and passing knowledge of traditional food preparation, cooking, making tamarack decoys, and the walking out ceremonies for children.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	An experimental trial using Cannabis for Cancer. Tiffany Kistabish Cananasso is fighting cancer with the use of Cannabis that would improve her quality of life.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Angel Baribeau from the Cree Nation of Mistissini is a queer and non-binary singer who explores their identity through music while preparing to release a first album. Angel also shares their love of music and the meaning behind the songs.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Before her death, Joyce Echaquan recorded a video showing abuse and racism from healthcare workers. The video sparked outrage across the country. We met three Indigenous women activists who demand action and justice.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Bertie Wapachee held many managerial positions over the years: Policy advisor for the Cree Nation of Nemaska, General Manager. In November 2020, he was elected chair of the CHB. A position he had before. He tells us about his vision for the next 4 years and what he hopes to accomplish.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Casey Bosum is an arm wrestler. Following his father's sport, he hopes to become stronger and better at arm wrestling.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Casey Bosum is an arm wrestler. Following his father's sport, he hopes to become stronger and better at arm wrestling.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Elma Moses, a residential school survivor, is on a healing journey and wants to educate people about the residential school system. (Lachlan Madill email, Mar.16/22)	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	For this special edition, we gathered old stories from our archives in which our elders are teaching us some of the favourite Cree traditional recipes.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Fur trapping has always been part of the Cree way of life. But today, it is less and less popular among Indigenous as well as non-Indigenous people.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Greenhouse Coordinator Gabriel Snowboy of the Chisasibi Business Service Center has been very busy working on various agricultural projects for his community since 2015. One of the biggest is the greenhouse. Gabriel says the initiative will promote healthy eating, increase food security, and provide training and employment in the community.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	In 1961, William Awashish was just a few months old when he was sent to Amos Hospital. He never came back home. Almost sixty years after his disappearance, his mother and sibling are still looking for him.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	In Eeyou Istchee, there are more unclaimed successions from unclaimed properties. Two Cree, one from Waswanipi and the other from Whapmagoostui, find out the amount and begin to register the unclaimed succession.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Manuan Lafond, an emerging artist from Chisasibi. He pursues linking his studies to his passion, making songs.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Schools shutting down due to coronavirus, Concordia University Visual Art Student Lindsay Visitor from Wemindji decided to stay in Montreal to complete her semester online.	010-News	In-house

APPENDIX 5 - CBMT MONTREAL - ENGLISH OLMC REFLECTION REPORT (Condition of licence 25(c))

BROADCAST YEAR 2021-2022

CBC ENGLISH TELEVISION

Program title	Description of local program that provides OLMC reflection	Program category	In-house/ Independent
Maamuitaau	Suicide is a very sensitive topic. Maamuitaau visited Mistissini and Oujé-Bougourmou. Both communities have their own suicide prevention programs. People running the programs themselves experienced hardships in their lives and are committed to build hope in their communities.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Susan Esau organizes a powwow because it brings people closer to their Indigenous culture which is part of the healing process.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Susan Esau organizes a powwow because it brings people closer to their Indigenous culture which is part of the healing process.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	The 1990 Oka Crisis led to a 78 day standoff between the Quebec Government and the Mohawks of Kanesatake and Kahnawake. Kevin Deer looked to find a peaceful resolution through his culture and spirituality.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Through Jamie's work, she helps herself and her community. She experiences a series of family and friends taking their lives through suicide. As she recovers from the traumas in her life, she shares how writing helps her express the pain.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Violent Ground is a hip-hop group from the Naskapi community of Kawawachikamach in northern Quebec. Allan and Christian Nabinacaboo are two brothers and along with Steve Einish who is their manager, the trio are trying to make their mark in the world of hip-hop as Indigenous artists. Their music reflects the world they live in.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Violent Ground is a hip-hop group from the Naskapi community of Kawawachikamach in northern Quebec. Allan and Christian Nabinacaboo are two brothers. Along with Steve Einish who is their manager, the trio is trying to make their mark in the world of hip-hop as Indigenous artists. Their music reflects the world they live in.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	Wayne Robinson is Managing Coordinator of Resilience Montreal is trying to organize a meal for the homeless for Nunavut Day while trying to deal with a flood in the basement where all the food and donations are stored.	010-News	In-house
Maamuitaau	When it was first announced that the covid-19 virus had spread around the world, the Cree leadership of Eeyou Istchee along with the Public Health team met and set priorities for all the Cree communities. Safety precautionary measures were put in place to help prevent the disease to spread and enter in the communities. Cree Health Board Chairperson Bella Petawabano spoke to us about the protocols and how covid-19 had impacted her personally.	010-News	In-house
Montreal Weekend News	Local news Sat@18:00 - 18:30; Sun @23:00- 23:30	010-News	In-house
News-Montreal	Local News M-F @18:00 - 18:30	010-News	In-house
News-Montreal (Late Night)	Local News M-F @23:00 - 23:30	010-News	In-house
Our Montreal	Weekly local current affairs program Sat @ 12:00-13:00 Sun @ 12:00 - 13:00 Mon @ 11:00 - 12:00	02A-Analysis	In-house
Absolutely Quebec - Absofreakinglutely (30 & 60min versions)	This one-hour Montreal comedy sketch special will feature the wackiest and most iconic situational comedy from the annals of Montreal's cultural landscape. MONTREAL SKETCH COMEDY SHOW This fresh sketch comedy from Montreal skewers the absurdities of life in the city. Featuring David Heti, Brad MacDonald, Adina Katz, Heidi Weeks, Rodney Ramsey, Quinn McMorrow, Wassim El-Mounzer, Lise Vigneault, Elizabeth Neale, Leighland Beckman, Walter Lyng, and more.	090-Variety	Independent

APPENDIX 5 - CBMT MONTREAL - ENGLISH OLMC REFLECTION REPORT (Condition of licence 25(c))

BROADCAST YEAR 2021-2022

CBC ENGLISH TELEVISION

Program title	Description of local program that provides OLMC reflection	Program category	In-house/ Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Abu	ABU is a POV documentary looking back at the contentious relationship between a fundamentalist Muslim father and his gay son through a lifetime of photographs, letters, VHS tapes, travelogues and animation. Director Arshad Khan's heartfelt exploration of the struggle between father and son resonates on a larger scale as trends towards more conservative interpretations of cultural and religious values are increasing in Southeast Asian Muslim communities. Treatment of gay youth by devout families gives rise to tensions that can have longstanding cultural implications when it comes to marginalized communities choosing the West as their home.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Calliari	A showcase of documentaries and performance programs by independent Canadian filmmakers bringing stories from communities across the country.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Champions	Montreal filmmaker Helgi Piccinin follows his younger brother, Stéphane, who has autism, on a three-year journey to the 2019 Special Olympics World Summer Games in Abu Dhabi. Along the way we get to know Audrey Vincent (QC) and Malcolm Borso (BC) and 20 other Canadian athletes from NL to BC with intellectual disabilities as they pursue their passions to become world champions in their divisions.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Cities Held Hostage	Centred on the landmark investigation by Montreal Gazette journalist Henry Aubin in his book City for Sale, plunges into the heart of a city in perpetual development and the forces that shape it.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Clay vs. Clay	The story of Clay "Big Thunder" Peters, a 33-year-old drug and alcohol addict who in 2006 hitchhiked across Canada from Vancouver to Montreal with the goal to become the world heavyweight boxing champion.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Into the Light (60 min)	Behind the scenes of Cité Mémoire with celebrated Quebec artist Michel Lemieux.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Meet and Eat at Lee's Garden	Day's Lee looks at the history of the Chinese-Canadian restaurant and its impact on local Montreal culture through her memories of her own family's restaurant on Parc Avenue and others who ran the city's scene in the 1950's.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Qanuilirpitaa? How Are We Now? (English) (60min)	A young Montreal resident from Nunavik joins the largest health survey ever conducted on Nunavik Inuit. Filmed aboard the Canadian icebreaker Amundsen, which has been converted into a floating clinic.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - Real Talk: Black Stories	First-person, real-life stories told live in front of an audience. Recorded at Le Ministère in Montreal, featuring stories by Darren Schilling, Candace Amarante, Myrna Lashley, Balarama Holness, Deborah Nonya, Pat Dillon-Moore and Roen Higgins.	02B-Documentary	In-house
Absolutely Quebec - Terra Mia	Director Agata de Santis (Mal'Occhio, Clay v. Clay) turns the camera on her family and community as she seeks to articulate the effects a half-century of adaptation and assimilation has had on the immigrant experience.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - The Gardener	The Gardener is a documentary reflecting on a spiritual and creative approach to gardening. A highly experiential program profiling one of Quebec's prolific landscape artists. Shortly before his death at the age of 86, influential gardener and horticulturalist Frank Cabot recounts his personal quest for perfection at Les Quatre Vents, his twenty-acre English style garden and summer estate that was opened to a film crew for the first time in 2009.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Absolutely Quebec - The Shigawake Movie	The Shigawake Music and Agricultural Festival is one of Canada's most remote music festivals, enjoying its 6th year at the tip of the Gaspé peninsula. Performances by Barr Brothers, Katie Moore & many others capture the Summer spirit of the Gaspé and highlight music's ability to bring together isolated communities whose youth are reckoning with uncertain futures in the region.	02B-Documentary	Independent
Montreal Mayoral Debate 2021	Montreal Mayoral Debate 2021	030-Reporting	In-house